

The Rising Tide of Enterprise File Sync & Share

Enterprises increasingly navigate data security concerns with existing storage solutions used in their organization

63%

prefer a private EFSS alternative vs. pure public SaaS offerings

To keep the ship afloat, mid-sized to large enterprises are plugging holes opened by public SaaS-based offerings

31% of organizations report data leakage as a result of employees using public file sync & share (FSS) solutions

55% of organizations with over 30,000 employees forbid use of SaaS-based file sharing solutions

SaaS-based public cloud storage offerings caused headaches for captains and CEOs

71% are concerned or extremely concerned with data breaches.

73% of enterprises with over 30,000 employees are concerned with lack of visibility into file sharing with outside entities.

TeraGo Cloud Drive allows enterprises to chart their course successfully:

HAVE DEPLOYED  PLAN TO DEPLOY

 70%

have implemented or are considering an Enterprise File Sync and Share solution

Why are they going in this direction?

45%

Security concerns over consumer file sharing

43%

Improved collaboration internally/SharePoint

36%

File access using mobile/tablet

According to a ResearchNow study of 200 IT professionals at mid-sized to large organizations

www.terago.ca/terago-cloud-drive

1.866.837.2461

 TeraGo Cloud Drive

 TeraGo Networks